Prayer by the chaplain, Dr. Briggs, as follows:

Our Father, guide us all the day long. Let Thy truth shine upon the understanding, that we may see the inner meaning of things, and so be able to labor in the wisest way toward the noblest ends. Let Thy love abide daily in the heart, nourishing all good things, especially every high purpose and every noble vow. Clothe us with Thy strength so that no burden may be too heavy for us and no task too difficult. Regard especially the Senator who is ill. Be Thou the physician. Minister to him as we cannot, and may he be quickly restored to health and strength. Be Thou the constant hope and helper of us all, our song in the night, and the rock in whose cooling shadow we rest at noonday, and to Thy name be the praise. Amen.

Pending the reading of the journal of yesterday,

On motion of Senator Dickson, the reading of the same was suspended.

On motion of Senator Crowley, Senator Cranford was excused indefinitely on account of sickness.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, March 28, 1893.

Hon. M. M. Crane, President of the Senate:

Your Committee on Engrossed Bills have carefully examined and compared

Senate bill No. 181, being "An act to amend articles 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429 of the Penal Code of the State of Texas and the several acts of the Legislature of the State of Texas emanating thereof, and adding articles 425a, 425b, 425c, 426a, 428a, 429a, 429b, 429c, 429d, 429e, 429f, 429g, 429h, 429i, 429j, 429k, 429l,"

And find the same correctly engrossed. PRESLER, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ROOM,

AUSTIN, TEXAS, March 29, 1893.

Hon. M. M. Crane, President of the Senate:

Your Committee on Engrossed Bills have carefully examined and compared

Senate bill No. 156, being "An act to validate certain titles to lands located by virtue of certificates issued to railroad companies and now owned by private individuals or belonging to the public free school, university or asylum lands."

And find the same correctly engrossed. PRESLER, Chairman.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Senator Greer:

A bill to be entitled an act to regulate and control the management and operation of railroad properties in the State of Texas, and to provide for a forfeiture for the violation thereof.

Bill read first time time, and referred to Committee on Internal Improvements:

By Senator Simpson:

Concurrent resolution:

Instructing the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds to utilize the Capitol grounds.

Whereas, The grounds surrounding our magnificent Capitol building located in the city of Austin and belonging to the State of Texas are, on account of the rank and noxious weeds that are permitted to grow unmolested and the consequent decaying vegetation that covers the grounds, unsightly to the eye, harrowing to the health of the State officials and State employes, as well as of the citizens of Austin; therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate, the House concurring, That the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds, be instructed to have the said grounds cultivated, one-half to be planted in oats and the other half in millet, or some other nutritious feed stuff, the product properly harvested and conveyed to the stables at the Governor's mansion; that the said grounds may be made useful, if not ornamental, and the grounds be harrowed instead of the feelings of a suffering public.

Senator Jester moved to refer the resolution to Committee on Agricultural Affairs, and it was so ordered.

Call concluded.

The Chair gave notice of signing, and did sign, the following:

Senate bill No. 255, being a bill to be entitled "An act for the relief of F. L. Schmid, and making an appropriation therefor."

Prayer by the chaplain, Dr. Briggs, as follows:

Our Father, we thank Thee for this glorious day—this shadowless flood of solar light, fragrant with the incense of a thousand flowers, and vocal with the bird songs from a thousand boughs. Teach us that the light we now see is but the dim emblem of the higher glory infinite in lustre which makes the splendor of the unseen day of heaven. May we live and labor as becometh children of the light. Deliver us from every shadow of ignorance and sin. May our inner life be like a temple filled with the light of God. Bring us to stand at last redeemed and saved amid the shadowless blaze of the uncreated light and to Thy name be all the praise. Amen.

Pending the reading of the journal of yesterday,

On motion of Senator Lawhon, the reading of the same was suspended.
